What Is The Juvenile Drug Court Program?

The Juvenile Drug Court Program is the most intensive outpatient option available to youth who are arrested and have been determined to have substance abuse issues and may also present with mental health issues. The parent/guardian and the youth have the option of consulting with the Public Defender's designated attorney to explore other legal options before accepting Juvenile Drug Court as part of their sentence. For those families offered and accepting the Juvenile Drug Court Program, the State Attorney's office will expedite handling in these cases. It is required that a contract be signed by the youth and their parent/guardian if they agree to comply with the program rules and sanctions.

How Does The Program Work?

The Juvenile Drug Court Program is a four phase program requiring intensive participation in the following:

- ◆ Individual Counseling
- ◆ Group Counseling
- ◆ Chemical Education Classes
- ◆ Community Involvement
- ◆ Self Help Support
- ◆ Parent Support Group
- ◆ Observed Urinalyses
- ◆ Family Counseling

Program duration is a minimum of 20 weeks. Services are available in Leon, Gadsden and Wakulla Counties.

Initial program admission fees may apply.
